The German airships—for they are thus described by the German official report—which raided the coast towns of Norfolk, dropped twenty or more bombs. ACCEPTS THE TENDER MADE

Of The Vice Presidency of The First National Bank of This City.

WILL COME ON MARCH 1ST.

Lafayette Banker To Become Actively Identified With Local Bank

Banker Ed L. Weather, of Lafayette, has notified the directors of the First National Bank of his acceptance of the position of vice president, to which he was elected some days ago. Mr. Weathers will enter upon his new duties about March 1st. His wife and daughter will remain in Lafayette until the end of the school year, as the little girl is in school.

Mr. Weathers went from Elkton ten years ago to become cashier of the Bank of Lafayette. Previously he had had banking experience in Elkton and was in Texas for awhile in the ice business. He is a representative of one of the most prominent families in Todd county. He is a young man of the highest standard of business qualifications. He will be an active officer of the bank, his services going to relieve the President, Mr. Geo. C. Long, of a portion of his very onerous duties.

Mr. Weathers has many friends in Hopkinsville who have watched his career and taken pride in his rapid rise in the business for which he is so admirably fitted. He and his family will be cordially welcome to the city. His successor at Lafayette has not yet been named.

NUMEROUS SNOW FINES

Big Bunch of Careless Citizens Who Forgot To Shovel The Beautiful.

Many persons who failed to comply with the provisions of the snow ordinance and clean the snow off their sidewalks within five hours after it ceased falling, were brought into police court Thursday and numerous fines of $3 were imposed.

Many prominent citizens were in the list, some of whom cleaned their residence pavements, but overlooked those in other parts of town for which they were responsible. Some had excuses deemed sufficient and were let off. All willful violations of the law were duly punished.

The law is a popular one with the people and many of the arrests were on complaints phoned to the police by people who had cleaned their own pavements. Most of these fined took it good humoredly and paid the fines. One prominent lawyer insisted on a written summons and his case had not been tried Thursday, as he was absent from the city.

GAINS 'NEAR METZ MADE BY GERMANS

Line of Communication to German Fortress Threatened by Allies and Invaders Rush Reinforcements to Regain Positions.

CZAR RENEWS OFFENSIVE AT MILWA.

Lieut. General Von Falkenhayn Retires As Minister of War At Own Request--Kaiser Honors Him By Appointment as General Of Infantry.

London, Jan. 22.—The battle for the trenches in Flanders and France continues almost without cessation, from the sea to the Swiss border.

In the mud of Flanders, the floods of the Aisne valley and the snows of the Argonne and the Vosges, the soldiers of Germany and the allied nations keep up a continual fight to hold what they possess and taking something from that field by the enemy.

According to a long French official report today of the fighting during the last two months, this method of siege operations have favored the allies, who, while they have gained ground on almost every part of the front, have been forced to give way in only one region—that of Soissons. They are being not to a test, however, similar to that which obliged them to retire from north of the Aisne, near Soissons, because the Germans, realizing the danger of their communications with Metz as a result of the French advance near Pont-a-Mousson, have sent reinforcements there, and have begun a battle for the positions they lost during the past week. The Germans apparently have regained a portion of them, and fighting for the remainder continues.

At other points, particularly near St. Mihiel and in Alsace, there have been infantry engagements, but on the whole the artillery continues to be the busiest arm.

The Russians have renewed offensive operations against Mlava, a town that already has changed hands often, and it appears they again will attempt to envelop the German forces holding the line of the Mazurian lakes and avenge themselves for the defeat at Tannenberg.

On the rest of the Polish front and in Galicia, Austro-German attacks are becoming more intermittent, according to the Russian report, which is generally brief when big events are happening. The Russians continue their progress against the Austrian outposts in the mountains between Bukovina and Transylvania.

The Germans explain the dropping of bombs on towns and villages in Norfolk, England, by saying their airships had been fired on. British airmen in turn, have been busy in Belgium, and, according to a report from Holland, have ventured as far as Essen, Rhenish Prussia, where they destroyed some buildings.

Holland has asked Germany to explain reports that the German airships on their way to England passed over Dutch territory.

Archduke Charles Francis, heir to the Austrian throne, has arrived at German headquarters on a visit to the emperor, and Baron Stephen Burián, the Austro-Hungarian minister of foreign affairs, is due there within a few days. It is expected the conference of the Germanic allies will decide whether the Austro-Germans will go on the expedition for the subjugation of Serbia or turn their attention to the Russian armies in invading Hungary from the north and east.

With all other occupations, England has found force to deal with the "Mad" Mullah, who has been stirring up the tribes in Somaliland and attacking those friendly to Great Britain. The Mullah's adherents have been defeated and scattered.

Mrs. Blakey's Will.

The will of Mrs. Sarah E. Blakey, who recently died in Hopkinsville, was probated in Logan county court last week. It was dated Dec. 10, 1899. She bequeaths "to the trustees for the benefit of the Cumberland Presbyterian church at Auburn the sum of $1,000, interest arising therefrom to be paid annually by the trustees to defray the general expense of the church, not using any of the principal. She also gave $3,000 in trust for the support of the old and retired ministers of said C. P. church, Mrs. Amelia Crider, widow of the late Dr. J. S. Crider, was given $1,000 for her use and benefit. One half of the remainder of the estate went to her daughter, Mrs. T. W. Blakey and her children. The remainder goes to her two sons, Wm. Blakey and G. R. Blakey and grandson, Faulkner Herd, to be divided equally between them. Her son, W. M. Blakey and son-in-law, Dr. T. W. Blakey, were appointed executors without bond—Russellville Times.

Peddling Twisted Tobacco.

Another One Unconstitutional.

Frankfort, Ky., 20.—The Appellate Court held unconstitutional the act of 1912 requiring co-operative assessment life insurance companies to deposit with the State Treasurer, a guaranty fund of $100,000.

Australia in 1913 exported over 600,000 tons of wool.

Killed By A Woman.

Details of the killing of D. Mac Neblett, formerly of Clarksville, have reached that place. Neblett and a fellow-prospecter named G. A. Lane, had occupied an abandoned shack on the Home Stake mine in California. Mrs. Rose O'Connor had previously filed on the claim but failed to keep up the assessment work. She appeared on the scene and shot Lane while he was getting water from a nearby canyon, leaving him for dead. She then went to the shack and shot Neblett, who died three hours later. Lane will recover. The woman is held for murder.

Vinson Waives Examination.

Owing to the fact that Mr. B. Frank Mitchell was not sufficiently recovered to attend the examining trial here Tuesday of Mr. A. T. Vinson, who shot Mr. Mitchell during the Christmas holidays during a difficulty near Gracey, Mr. Vinson waived examination and was held under his same bond to the grand jury, which convenes here next Monday.—Record.

CHRISTIAN COUNTY GIRL

Figures In a White Slave Case In Nashville, Tennessee.

YOUNG RUSSIAN ARRESTED.

Charged With Enticing Della Graham, of Kelly, Into Another State.

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 22.—Charged with having violated the Mann white slave act, Joe Savage, a young Russian, was taken in custody late Tuesday afternoon by Emergency Officer Ferris and Sergt. Longhurst and was turned over to Government White Slave Officer McCann.

He is accused of having enticed Della Graham, a pretty 18-year-old girl, from her home at Kelly, Ky., recently and is said to have placed her in a room in the uptown district for an immoral purpose.

Two charges, one for violating the white slave act, and the other for violation of the age of consent law, were registered against the Russian at police headquarters.

Miss Graham was turned over by the authorities to the United Charities and will probably be sent to her mother at Goodlettsville, Tenn. She claims that she had known Savage when she lived in Nashville several years ago and that he made every available effort to persuade her to return to this city. She left her home Sunday and came to Nashville on a railroad ticket which the Russian mailed to her, it is said.

According to the information of the police, Savage met the young girl at the depot and escorted her to a room on Fourth avenue, north. When taken in custody Tuesday Savage denied having persuaded the girl to come to Nashville, and said that she had left her home on her own accord. The man has been living here for a number of years.

Louisville's Veteran Policeman

Patrolman Henry H. Strohmayer, yesterday began his thirty-eighth year of service. He was appointed to the force January 16, 1878, and has served continuously. He has never been off on sick leave and has left his post only for ten days' vacation allowed him each year by the Board of Public Safety. When Strohmayer became a policeman the telephone was not in general use. In making an arrest he was compelled to take his prisoner to the jail. To-day he steps into a nearby drug store and telephones for a patrol. Time brought on the telephone and the horse-driven patrol, which in turn has been supplanted by high-powered motor patrols in all but two of the police districts of the city.—Courier-Journal.

Dacia Will Sail.

Washington, Jan. 20.—After conferences between Director DeLaney, of the Federal War Risk bureau and Secretary McAdoo, it was virtually decided tonight to issue war risk insurance on the cargo of cotton of the steamship Dacia will undertake to carry from Texas to German ports in the face of the warning that the British government will regard the ship as fair prize for its fleet.

Night Riders.

Litchfield, Ky., Jan. 20.—Night riders visited the home of Miles Duval, near here, Monday night, according to information reaching here today, seized his daughter Nellie (aged 19) during the absence of the family and flogged her, for no known reason. Three men were arrested.

Suffers Relapse.

The many friends of Mrs. J. A. Miles will regret to learn that she suffered a relapse a few days ago and was very ill. Her condition was somewhat improved yesterday. Her daughter, Mrs. H. E. Purdy, of Paducah, is with her.

ORDINANCE TO BE TESTED

Legality of The Recent License Ordinance Questioned In Suit.

AUTO MEN RESIST PAYMENT.

Restraining Order Granted By Circuit Clerk Radford, Temporarily.

The legality of the passage of the recent license ordinance, known as ordinance No. 16, is called into question by an injunction suit filed this week.

The owners of private automobiles are the plaintiffs and the suit is in the names of Charles F. Johnson, S. U. Woodridge, Dr. J. H. Rice, E. H. Higgins, officers of the association formed a few days ago with about 60 members to prevent the enforcement of that clause of the recently enacted license tax ordinance by which automobiles owned within the city are taxed $10 per year as a special tax.

Acting on the petition Circuit Clerk Radford issued a restraining order to prevent the city officials from collecting this tax until the case can be tried out.

In the petition that is set forth that complainants are owners of automobiles used strictly for personal and private use and that they are not for let or hire, and it is claimed that the city is exceeding its constitutional rights in attempting to levy a tax upon them as they are without such authority except on automobiles used for hire.

The petition also states that the plaintiffs all pay an ad valorem tax on their machines and that the assessment of another tax is double taxation.

Further it says that the clause taxing automobiles is not in keeping with the caption of the ordinance as a whole, which specifies that the purpose of the measure is to tax lines of business, occupations and professions.

And the allegation is made that the entire ordinance is invalid for the reason that it was not passed at two separate meetings of the council by the required number of votes.

Frank Rives is the attorney representing the plaintiffs.

KILLS HIS DAUGHTER AND THEN HIMSELF

Frank P. Johnson, Prominent Resident of Springfield, Principal in a Tragedy.

Springfield, Tenn., Jan. 19.—Frank P. Johnson, a prominent farmer residing one mile north of Springfield, committed suicide, after having first fired a shot from a .32 calibre rifle into the head of his daughter, Miss Lucy Johnson, who had for a number of years been an invalid.

Mr. Johnson used the same weapon and fired one shot into his own brain. Mr. Johnson was about 64 years of age and his daughter 24. At the time the shooting occurred Mrs. Johnson, the wife of the deceased, and a young son were in Springfield, having left home shortly after 11 o'clock, and upon their return at 12:30 the lifeless bodies of Mr. Johnson and his daughter were found in the family room.

Members of the family say that Mr. Johnson had been acting peculiarly for the past sixty days, and that during that period he had slept but little.

Where a Ruler Sins.

Wu Ting Fang once said that "any ruler who appoints a man to office when there is within his dominions another man better qualified for it, sins against God and the State." ANNOUNCEMENT.

We are authorized to announce
HON. HENRY M. BOSWORTH of Fayette County, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Kentucky, subject to the primary election August 1915.

We are authorized to announce
JAMES B. ALLENSWORTH of Christian county, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Commonwealth's Attorney, for the Third Judicial district, composed of Christian, Calloway, Trigg and Lyon counties.

We are authorized to announce
HON. DENNY P. SMITH, of Trigg county, a candidate for re-election as Commonwealth's Attorney of the Third Judicial District of Kentucky, subject to the action of the Democratic party at the primary election, Saturday, August 7th, 1915.

Admiral Fletcher says there is an astounding shortage of men and officers in the navy. Supplementing his recent testimony before the committee, the admiral announces that an inquiry just completed has revealed that the navy lacks by 10,000, the men to man all ships which ought to be commissioned on the outbreak of war.

Judge James B. Allensworth, candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney, has been in the county this week in the interest of his race. The Judge says he is meeting with much encouragement, and is highly elated at his prospects of winning the race.
He has made a good impression on our people, and from the expressions heard, is going to make a fine race in this county.—Calloway Times.

Rudolph "Havens" Rein, president of the Reichs bank and one of the foremost financial authorities of Germany, declares the country can meet any burden which may be imposed by the war upon its financial and economic resources. Authorized statements of this sort, given out every few days seem to have a definite purpose, in view of the fact that heretofore the Germans have done but little talking.

A new movement has been started in Mexico to eliminate both Carranza and Villa, it is learned in authentic reports from the interior. General Alvaro Obregon, Carranza's military chief, heads the movement with General Eulalio Gutierrez, the national convention's provisional president who recently fled from the capital. They have agreed together and with several of the Carranza and Villa leaders, it is reported, to organize an independent movement to establish a lasting peace.

We are reliably informed that Senator N. W. Uley will enter the race for Lieutenant-Governor. This is one of the important offices of the state, and there is not a man in the state better qualified to fill this office than Senator Uley. He is an able lawyer, thoroughly familiar with parliamentary usages. He was President of the Senate in 1902 and by virtue of this office, there being no Lieutenant-Governor, he served for two years as acting Lieutenant-Governor, filling that office not only with honor to himself, but to his constituents. The First Congressional District, the Gibraltar of Democracy, will present Senator Uley as its only candidate for State office, and we feel that we should have this place from the Democratic party without opposition. We think we are modest in our demands, for we give a great deal toward the supremacacy of Democracy in Kentucky.

PAYROLL OF
CIVILIZATION MET
BY FARMERWANTS NO "DEADHEADS" ON LIST OF EMPLOYEES.A CALL UPON THE LAW MAKERS TO PREVENT USELESS TAX
UPON AGRICULTURE.By Peter Radford
Lecturer National Farmers' Union

The farmer is the paymaster of industry and as such he must meet the nation's payroll. When industry pays its bill it must make a sight draft upon agriculture for the amount, which the farmer is compelled to honor without protest. This check drawn upon agriculture may travel to and fro over the highways of commerce; may build cities; girdle the globe with bands of steel; may search hidden treasures in the earth or traverse the skies, but in the end it will rest upon the soil. No dollar will remain suspended in midair; it is as certain to seek the earth's surface as an apple that falls from a tree.

When a farmer buys a plow he pays the man who mined the metal, the woodman who felled the tree, the manufacturer who assembled the raw material and shaped it into an article of usefulness, the railroad that transported it and the dealer who sold him the goods. He pays the wages of labor and capital employed in the transaction as well as pays for the tools, machinery, buildings, etc., used in the construction of the commodity and the same applies to all articles of use and diet of himself and those engaged in the subsidiary lines of industry.

There is no payroll in civilization that does not rest upon the back of the farmer. He must pay the bills —all of them.

The total value of the nation's annual agricultural products is around $12,000,000,000, and it is safe to estimate that 95 cents on every dollar goes to meeting the expenses of subsidiary industries. The farmer does not work more than thirty minutes per day for himself; the remaining thirteen hours of the day's toil he devotes to meeting the payroll of the hired hands of agriculture, such as the manufacturer, railroad, commercial and other servants.

The Farmer's Payroll and How He Meets It.

The annual payroll of agriculture approximates $12,000,000,000. A portion of the amount is shifted to foreign countries in exports, but the total payroll of industries working for the farmer divides substantially as follows: Railroads, $1,252,000,000; manufacturers, $4,365,000,000; mining, $655,000,000; banks, $200,000,000; mercantile $3,500,000,000, and a heavy miscellaneous payroll constitutes the remainder.

It takes the corn crop, the most valuable in agriculture, which sold last year for $1,692,000,000, to pay off the employees of the railroads; the money derived from our annual sales of livestock of approximately $2,000, 000,000, the yearly cotton crop, valued at $920,000,000; the wheat crop, which is worth $610,000,000, and the oat crop, that is worth $440,000,000, are required to meet the annual payroll of the manufacturers. The money derived from the remaining staple crops is used in meeting the payroll of the bankers, merchants, etc. After these obligations are paid, the farmer has only a few bunches of vegetables, some fruit and poultry which he can sell and call the proceeds his own.

When the farmer pays off his help he has very little left and to meet these tremendous payrolls he has been forced to mortgage homes, work women in the field and increase the hours of his labor. We are, therefore, compelled to call upon all industries dependent upon the farmers for subsistence to retrench in their expenditures and to cut off all unnecessary expenses. This course is absolutely necessary in order to avoid a reduction in wages, and we want, if possible, to retain the present wage scale paid railroad and all other industrial employees.

We will devote this article to a discussion of unnecessary expenses and whether required by law or permitted by the managements of the concerns, is wholly immaterial. We want all waste labor and extravagance, of whatever character, cut out.
We will mention the full crew bill as illustrating the character of unnecessary expenses to which we refer.

Union Opposes "Full Crew" Bill.

The Texas Farmers' Union registered its opposition to this character of legislation at the last annual meeting held in Fort Worth, Tex., August 4, 1914, by resolution, which we quote, as follows:

"The matter of prime importance to the farmers of this state is an adequate and efficient marketing system; and we recognize that such a system is impossible without adequate railroad facilities, embracing the greatest amount of service at the least possible cost. We further recognize that the farmers and producers in the end pay approximately 95 per cent of the expenses of operating the railroads, and it is therefore to the interest of the producers that the expenses of the common carriers be as small as is possible, consistent with good service and safety. We, therefore, call upon our law-makers, courts and juries to bear the foregoing facts in mind when dealing with the common carriers of this state, and we do especially reaffirm the declarations of the last annual convention of our State Union, opposing the passage of the so-called 'full-crew' bill before the thirty-third legislature of Texas."

The farmers of Missouri in the last election, by an overwhelming majority, swept this law off the statute book of that state, and it should come off of all statute books where it appears and no legislature of this nation should pass such a law or similar legislation which requires unnecessary expenditures.

The same rule applies to all regulatory measures which increase the expenses of industry without giving corresponding benefits to the public.
There is oftentimes a body of men assembled at legislatures—and they have a right to be there—who, in their zeal for rendering their fellow-associates a service, sometimes favor an increase in the expenses of industry without due regard for the men who bow their backs to the summer's sun to meet the payroll, but these committees, while making a record for themselves, rub the skin off the shoulders of the farmer by urging the legislature to lay another burden upon his heavy load and under the lash of "be it enacted" goad him on to pull and surge at the traces of civilization, no matter how he may sweat, foam and gall at the task. When legislatures "cut a melon" for labor they hand the farmer a lemon.

The farmers of the United States are not financially able to carry "dead heads" on their payrolls. Our own hired hands are not paid unless we have something for them to do and we are not willing to carry the hired help of dependent industries unless there is work for them. We must therefore insist upon the most rigid economy.

Legislative House-Cleaning Needed.

While the war is on and there is a hull in business, we want all legislative bodies to take an inventory of the statute books and wipe off all extravagant and useless laws. A good house-cleaning is needed and economies can be instituted here and there that will patch the clothes of indigent children, rest tired mothers and lift mortgages from despondent homes.
Unnecessary workmen taken off and useless expenses chopped down all along the line will add to the prosperity of the farmer and encourage him in his mighty effort to feed and clothe the world.

If any of these industries have surplus employees we can use them on the farm. We have no regular schedule of wages, but we pay good farm hands on an average of $1.50 per day of thirteen hours when they board themselves; work usually runs about nine months of the year and the three months dead time, they can do the chores for their board. If they prefer to farm on their own account, there are more than 14,000,000,000 acres of idle land on the earth's surface awaiting the magic touch of the plow. The compensation is easily obtainable from Federal Agricultural Department statistics. The total average annual sales of a farm in the continental United States amounts to $516.00; the cost of operation is $340.00; leaving the farmer $176 per annum to live on and educate his family.

There is no occasion for the legislatures making a position for surplus employees of industry. Let them come "back to the soil" and share with us the prosperity of the farm.

When honesty is merely a good policy it is a poor virtue.

Lazy farmers are just as useless as dead ones and take up more room.

When the soul communes with the spirit of nature the back to the farm movement prevails.

There are two kinds of farmers.
One tries to take all the advice he hears and the other won't take any at all.

Explorations within recent years have indicated that China has capacity for utilizing more fuel than all the rest of the world combined.

I think of England and Wales where still divided more or less respects there would be little more than one acre for each person.

It is no new experiment. For fifty

MR. ALLENSWORTH

To Be Strong Candidate For Commonwealth's Attorney.

(From Hazel Items, Calloway Co.)

In the issue of our paper of Jan. 1, we published a signed announcement of the candidacy of the Mr. James B. Allensworth, of Hopkinsville. In the well-written card he announced to our readers his candidacy for the office of Commonwealth's Attorney for this district.

Mr. Allensworth is one of the foremost lawyers of the Pennyroyal district and Jackson's Purchase. He is no stranger to the people of any county in the First Congressional district, and especially is he well and favorably known over the four counties of this, the Third Congressional district. He has made friends and acquaintances, not as a candidate, but while rendering valuable service to the nominees on various occasions. Mr. Allensworth proved his ability as a prosecutor to the people of Calloway county when he served as Commonwealth's Attorney in the Calloway Circuit Court in the absence of the regular prosecutor.

At Hopkinsville Mr. Allensworth has as a law partner the Hon. James Breathitt, another legal power in Kentucky. He comes out in this, his first race with a good record, and it is his hope and his intention to meet as many of the voters as possible between now and the primary next August. He is a man of gentlemanly demeanor and pleasing personality and will make votes wherever he goes.

We hope you read his card in our issue two weeks ago. (Advertisement.)

OUR YEARLY

WINTER CLEARANCE SALE

BEGINS WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 27TH---Continues 10 Days, Through Saturday, Feb. 6th

Breezy Bargains From Every Department---Cherry News for our Customers and Friends.

Editorial--Winter Clearance Sale

Once again the wheels of time have made another circuit. Stock-taking is over, and spring buying time for us draws near. Our modern merchandising methods demand a speedy clearance of all surplus stock, broken assortments and odds and ends. Mistakes made in our buying must be corrected now, cost what it may. "This is the Frankel way."

Editorial--The "Frankel" Way

Means lower prices or better goods at the same price. It stands for quality, service and economy. It stands for honest goods and honest advertising. There are no costly schemes tacked on to our expense account to confuse the customers. Our way is the direct way. Our prices are printed plainly in the papers. The public gets the full benefit of our low quotations, and the benefit of the low cost of distribution. Try the Frankel way now.

Editorial--Shopping In January

These are Economy Days—the time to buy January is the month to spend money in order to make money. This is the time when a $10 bill will frequently do the work of $15, $20 or even $25 earlier in the season. Our Clearing Sale will prove this, and our store is filled with so many good things that are worth so much more than the money to you. Come! visit every floor and share the splendid offerings told about on this page. And test "The Frankel Way."

OUR ANNUAL WINTER CLEARANCE SALE of DRY GOODS, NOTIONS, SILKS, MILLINERY, CLOTHING, SHOES and READY-TO-WEAR—SUITS, SKIRTS, COATS and DRESSES. Realizing that merchandising is fast becoming a science—a science dealing with facts as they are; namely, that all stocks should be completely sold out twice each year. This means that stocks are kept constantly fresh and new and no old merchandise is allowed to accumulate. Now comes house-cleaning time—a house-cleaning as thorough as that of the most particular housewife—a cleaning up of all merchandise bought for fall and winter selling. All goods are marked down at ridiculously low prices that insure a rapid clearance—A REAL MONEY-SAVING EVENT. Don't miss it. IT'S THE "FRANKEL" WAY OF MERCHANDISING.

Women's Ready-to-Wear

We have taken inventory and find our stock of Ready-to-Wear entirely too heavy. It must be reduced. In order to do this we must make radical reductions. To accomplish this end we have divided our Coat and Suit stock into several remarkable groups as follows:

Suits

LOT NO. 1—20 FINE SUITS.

$14.95 These suits are made of Fine Gabardines, Serges and Broadcloths. Sizes of some not sizes in all from 16 to 46. Mostly Navy Blue and Black, a few Greens. Suits in the lot value from $25.00 to $35.00.

The Cause of The War.

(From the Bartlesville Okla., Daily Enterprise.)

We don't like to take the space here for such a lengthy item, but recently this department was asked what the present war in Europe started about. Now comes a reader and asks this department the same question, remarking that "as you are so darned smart in other things, perhaps you can answer the question yourself." We can. We will be as brief as possible.

In the first place a Servian Social ist got drunk and killed an Austrian nobleman and his escort (or maybe it was his consort.) Anyway it was some sort. Austria then got hot under the collar over the incident and said to Servia: See here, now we don't want any of that rough stuff. I want to be a father to you.
Come into the wood shed." Russia was peeking through the fence when she heard the conversation, and seeing what was going on, said to Austria, "Don't you dare touch that child; he's my kid, and anyhow, you'd make a hell of a looking daddy." "You've got another think comin'," answered Austria. "I don't like the color of your eyes, anyhow, and your feet don't track besides, and I can lick you with one hand tied."
"Bully boy," says Wilhelm to Austria. "If you can lick him I can, and by gosh I'll do it. I can lick anybody; I can lick everybody. We'll take him on together." So Germany slips up on France when she aint looking and lands with both feet in the middle of Belgium. "Get off'n my belly," says Belgium, "or I'll bite your leg off." "Ouch," says Germany, "but I'll get off when I get ready." "That's not fair," says France. "Take that, you slob," handing Germany a hot one on the snout. "I hate a scrap," says England, "but I can smash the jaw of the guy that slams my friend."
"You don't hate it worse than I do," says Japan as she squares off for a hand in the game. "Well, I guess you started it, anyhow," says Wilhelm to Nich. Just then everybody begins to yell: "You started it yourself," and each one sticks out his tongue at the other fellow and they all clinch and the little fellows begin to dance around watching for a chance to get in a punch and run.
And there you are.

SAVED BY SAUNDERS' LARIAT

Woman and Children Rescued From Dangerous Plight on Mountain.

The experience of Steve Saunders in rescuing Mrs. Lee Bonner and three young boys from a perilous position in the mountains recently has made him one of the most talked about men in town.

Mrs. Bonner and her little party, on returning from a trip to the mountains late in the afternoon, decided to take a short cut which would enable them to reach the city before dark. Progress down the grade became more difficult as they proceeded and the picnickers finally found themselves on a dangerous ledge unable to continue the descent or to make their way back.

Their cries for help reached Henry Williams, who was returning to the city. Williams hurried back to Barker's camp for assistance and with Saunders and a young man named Coffin hastened to the rescue. Finding it impossible to reach the marooned party, Saunders threw the lariat he had brought with him across and roped some shrubs. Finding they held he climbed hand over hand to them. By means of the rope Mrs. Bonner was lowered to safety and the boys were assisted back up the dangerous trail to the canyon road.—Azua (Cal.) Dispatch to San Francisco Chronicle.

DISAPPOINTING

When homeward plods his weary way
The tired vacationist,
He finds that through his weeks of play
He hasn't once been missed.

THEIR FAVORITE RESORT.

Ole Olson, an intelligent citizen of Minnesota, "iss not long from Sweden," as he himself would say, and therefore his English is sometimes delightfully picturesque and carefully explicit.

He came into a country drug store the other day in search of fly paper, but its name had quite escaped him. His description of what he wanted, however, left nothing to be desired in the way of lucidity. "I want de kind off paper vat de flies buzz and buzz and buzz, and den sit down."

TOMMY ATKINS' PLAN.

During General French's retirement on Paris a British officer overheard the following dialogue between Tommy and Timmy Atkins:

Said Tommy: "We'll beat the beggars nearer Paris and finally rout them."

"Shure," replies Timmy, "phwy not lick thim here an' save thim an' us the devil of a long walk?"

TRAMP'S ENEMIES.

"Ah, my poor man," said the benevolent old lady, "I suppose you are often pinched by want and hunger, are you not?"

"Yessum, and cops."

QUITE UNFITTING.

"I see Gloversville had to have a finger in the strike business."

"Yes; bad place to have such trouble on hand."

THE SAD TRUTH.

Warner—Does your wife spend any time over the cook book?

Walker—No. It's a condition, not a theory, that confronts me.—Judge.

NOTHING GAY.

Escort (in ice cream parlor)—What flavors do you wish?

Young Widow—Chocolate and vanilla. I am still in half-mourning.

NOT UNUSUAL.

"Scrapes tells me that he is wedded to his violin."

"Well, he's not the first man to get nothing but word from his wife."

Terrible Picture of Suffering

Clinton, Ky.—Mrs. C. F. McElroy, in a letter from Clinton, writes: "For x years, I was a sufferer from female troubles. I could not sit, and could not stand on my feet, without suffering great pain. Three of the best doctors in the state said I was in a critical condition, and going down hill. I lost hope. After using Cardui a week, I began to improve. Now I feel better than six years." Fifty years of success, in actual practice, is positive proof that Cardui can always be relied on, for relieving female weakness and disease. Why not test it for yourself? Sold by your druggist. A live recommendation.

MOST FAMOUS OF SIGNETS

Ring of the Fisherman, Used to Seal Papal Documents, is Oldest Known in History.

The Ring of the Fisherman, used by the pope exclusively to seal documents of the Holy See, shows an engraved figure of St. Peter, the first bishop of Rome, standing in a boat and flinging with two hands a net into the sea.

In 1809, when the French occupied the city of Rome, Pius VII, then pope, was ordered by General Radet to surrender the Fisherman's ring. The pontiff refused. He feared that by means of the sanction of the ring the French government would be enabled to issue dangerous documents.

When finally forced to surrender the pope altered the engraving or stamp with the view of making it useless to his enemies. This seal thus defaced was forwarded to Paris by the French general in command at Rome. Pius VII in the absence of the Fisherman's ring, made use of an iron seal engraved with the figures of Sts. Peter and Paul and inscribed with the words "Pro Anulo Piscatoris" (in lieu of the Fisherman's ring).

The Fisherman's ring was kept in Paris until Napoleon I was overthrown, when it was returned to the sovereign pontiff. The ring is used only to seal briefs. The bulls, more important documents, are stamped with the leaden seal of the ancient parchments.

NEVER KNOWN TO FAIL

The melancholy days are here,
We feel with trepidation,
When 'round us fallen leaves do lie
And folks about vacation.

CAME TO CITY FOR MEAL.

A big bird, variously asserted to be a bald-headed American eagle or an extraordinarily large duck hawk, swooped down over lower Manhattan the other day, pinioned a fat pigeon in the air near the post office, and then carried his quarry to the gargoyles that jut out over Broadway from a corner of the twenty-seventh story of the Woolworth building. Here, within easy sound of the roar and clamor of the street, the big bird settled down contentedly for a couple of hours while he made a leisurely meal. Occupants of nearby office buildings were the first to spot the unusual visitor and soon spy-glasses were trained upon him from dozens of windows. Photographers climbed around the corner of the ledge in order to get a front view of him and the big bird flew away.

NEW FRENCH BANK NOTES.

Americans familiar with the attractive appearance and convenient size of French bank notes will be interested in the design for the new 500-franc note by Jean Paul Laurens. The face of the note shows a peasant at the plow and a modern Ceres at the sides, and in the center a rich plowed field, with the sea in the distance. The dominant colors of the note are violet, blue and dark green.

SPARING HIS FEELINGS.

"I can't bear to see a woman stand in a trolley car."

"What do you do in a case like that?"

"I usually look out of the window, no matter where I'm sitting."

NOT EASY ENOUGH.

"I wonder why so few people get to the top?"

"Possibly because there is no elevator to take them there."

A PLAIN QUERY.

"A man should be the dominating factor in his own household."

"But how can he be when his wife won't let him?"

GREAT WINTER CLEARANCE SALE

Wall & McGowan's

Wednesday, January 27, 1915. THE CLEARING EVENT OF HOPKINSVILLE.

Now comes the emphatic let go of all surplus stocks throughout every section of the house. Now the ultimatum of our progress in merchandising principles is given to every vestige of merchandise that has overstayed its time. A complete shelf-emptying of all goods that belong to winter is begun and will be prosecuted in a vigorous way with price abatements that are so stringent as to make short work of the dismissal by season of the hasty and enthusiastic responses from shrewd buyers. Practically every item in the store belonging to winter has been slaughtered to make room for new spring goods. With the many hundreds of items we carry in stock, it is only possible that we can give you a few, showing the great reductions in this sale. Join in the throng of economists, who will be here bright and early Wednesday, January 27th, 1915, to get first choice from these wonderful values. When you consider that most firms are sliding backward during war times this move forward at this time again demonstrates that this firm has built its wonderful success upon just such values. Come and see the wonderful price sacrificing and judge for yourself:
